a year since, he then stated that he was from Baltimore his Mistress having died and he was about being set. on questioning him I find he was acquainted in most of the Cities this side of Baltimore and also with the names of many prominent abolitionists I then told him he was an imposter and sent him off. I feel indignant for he shunned all the prominent abolitionists last Saturday and called on men who have kind benevolent feelings but on account of their Religi-

Last Saturday a benevolent Gentleman came in to my store and said to me, at our store we gave that Black man some money to help him to Canada, he said you sent him to us, in a few moments another man came in and said the same, I told them they had been imposed upon and ~~told them so immediately~~ I went to the depot to see if the man went to Boston instead of Portland, one of the Gentlemen who had helped him went with me and found him in the Cars for Boston having just taken his seat. I found the same
